Farewell Message

It gives me immense pleasure to record my good wishes to all of you on my superannuation as Chairman of NINL Limited.

During my tenure I had the good fortune of being associated with many of you and we together have done our best to keep NINL afloat during its tough times. My association with NINL goes back twenty years, and NINL had become my second family during this period. You are all close to my heart and I will always cherish support and cooperation received from each one of you. It has been my great pleasure to know each of you personally.

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude again to all of you who have been the pillar of strength during my association with NINL of over two decades. I wish all the best for NINL and for all of you and your families for many years to come.

‘JAI HIND’

(Ved Prakash)
