

Business Standard

Date : 06.06.2017

NINL makes third highest hot metal production in May

Neelachal Ispat Nigam Limited produced 62670 ton Hot Metal in the last month, which is third best May production of the company since inception (2002). The highest May Hot Metal production was 66023 ton achieved during 2010-11 and the second highest May production was 64985 ton achieved during 2014-15. NINL produced 60160 ton Hot Metal in the month of April in this Financial Year which is also best April production of the company in the last four Financial Years and third best April production since inception. Execution of the Blast Furnace Capital Repair is planned in the second quarter of the present Financial Year (2017-18). After the Capital Repair, Hot Metal production will be more than 3200 Ton per day.